

Marine Diving Technology

Corwyn Schumacher

Submitted by Emma Horanic

Cory consistently gives 100%, shows up on time, and exceeds expectations in every aspect of the program. He frequently volunteers for equipment maintenance and facility tasks and is always willing to dive, even when its is freezing cold, without hesitation. As a diver, he is responsible, attentive, and a dependable teammate, earning the respect of both peers and instructors. Cory exemplifies the professionalism, work ethic, and commitment we strive to cultivate in the Marine Tech program. His contributions have made a lasting impact, and he truly represents the best of what the MDT program has to offer.
